Speaking in the Fourth Ward. A HEAVY "GROUND SWELL." BANNERS AND TRANSPARENCIES.

SKY-ROCKETS AND TORCHLIGHTS. Eight Bell and Everett Clubs in Procession

STIRRING AND ELOQUENT SPEECHES. If we were to say all that might truthfully be said about the magnificent rally of the different BELL and EVERETT Clubs of the city at the Union Pole in the Fourth Ward night before last, the reader would be apt to think that we were "piling it on" after the style of the BRECKINRIDGE-YANCEY Democratic newspapers, and were making a "boo" a great gadellarer than the size of the colt would instify. We have no desire to exaggerate the affair, nor is there any cause whatever for exaggeration, for a larger and more enthusiastic gathering of the citizens of Nash-times of '40 and '44. The "gathering of the claus" began soon after supper, and very soon the principal ets were alive with men and music, and lit up by the blaze of rockets and torches. NUMBERSON & HUMPHREY, to DAVID HUMPHREY, who The heavens seemed thronged with blazing will continue the business as heretofore. I will meteors and the whole city rung with the

> The different Clubs, eight in all, met at the Market House, with one exception, and having formed in procession, marched to the corner of High and Cedar Streets, where they were met and received by the Fourth Ward Club, which turned out a long array of members on the occasion, and who were instrumental in getting up the meeting. With their banners and transparencies, and headed by a band of music, they presented an imposing appearance. The two processions having been consolidated, they passed around the Capitol, amid the blaze of torches and sky-rockets, to the Union Pole in the Fourth Ward, erected by R. L. CREN-SHAW, Esq., President of the Club in that Ward. Here, in the large lot in which his shop stands, Mr. CRENSHAW had erected a stand for the speakers, and arranged a sufficient number of seats to accommodate eight hundred or a thousand people. From the top of Mr. CRENSHAW'S large carpenter's shop. the many windows of which were brilliantly illuminated, rose the Union Pole to the height of eighty-five feet, with a transparency upon > the top and another upon the cross-trees. The Democratic papers have rendered the word "enthusiasm" almost "ridiculous," and we dislike to use it; but there was so much of the genuine article manifested during the march of the procession (which was nearly a quarter of a mile long), so much manifested when it reached the Pole, and throughout the meeting, that we can think of no other word that will convey an idea of the spirited demonstration. Shout after shout went up, startling the very stars with wonder. Every Union man present was proud of the occasion and of his cause. The meeting was almost an impromptu affair, only a day or two's notice having been given; and the crowd in attendance would have been considered large for any sort of an occasion. The Ladies, who, > as one of the speakers observed, are always right, were out in large numbers, and invested the meeting with a double charm, We have not room to refor at length to the peeches made on the occasion. Col. Jo. G. PICKETT, a gallant and gifted gentleman, introduced to the assembly by St. CLAIR M. MOR-GAN, Esq., was the first speaker. He gave a complete though brief history of the slavery question, showing how it has been persistently agitated for years by the Democratic party as a means of accomplishing its selfish purposes, and to what it has led and to what it is yet destined to lead. His speech was a fine specimen of sound logic and beautiful rhetoric, and was received with round after round of applause. When Col. Pickerr had retired from the stand, and after music by one of the silver bands engaged for the occasion, the Hon. JOHN S. BRIEN, one of the ablest stumpspeakers in the South, was introduced to the auditory by Mr. CRENSHAW amid the wildest applause. Of Judge BRIEN's speech we can only say, that it was one of the most eloquent and argumentative efforts we have destructive habits of inconsiderate youths, and ex-cessive insulgence of the passions, a neglect of which will undermine the constitution, rendering the subery stump in Tennessee, it would accomplish a glorious result for BELL and EVERETT. The meeting broke up at about a quarter to twelve o'clock, everything having passed off in the most satisfactory manner. And now, when will the other Clubs emulate the example of that of the Fourth Ward, and give us other glorious gatherings?

A SINGULAR AFFAIR. - Mr. ALPHONSO JON-NARD, of the firm of A. & A. J. JONNAED, restaurators on Union street, was up before the Recorder's court yesterday afternoon, upon a charge of having set fire to an out-house on his premises the night before. The only witness against him was Mrs. WILLIAMS, who lives in the third story of an adjoining house. The witness deposed that she was sitting at her window smoking, when she saw a man set fire to a pile of straw lying against the outhouse, and that she recognized him as Mr. ALPHONSO JONNARD by the light of the fire. Two witnesses testified that they saw Mr. JONNARD sitting on the pavement in front of Below will be found the opinions of some of the Physicians of Louisville, as to its merits.

JO. G. BROWN & EVANS,

43, College Street, Nashville.

OPINIONS OF PHYSICIANS,

We the undersigned, have had occasion to prescribe and watch the use of the Artesian Water, in a variety of diseases, and we have no hesitation in declaring it to be our opinion that it is an exceedingly valuable remedy in many chronic diseases. Those in which its use has been attended with the most marked benefit thus far are, chronic rheumatism, cutaacous affections, and some of the chronic disor ders of the digestive system.

The known chemical elements found in the water of such a nature, and they exist in such states of combination, that we have no doubt it will be found in a more extended experience, in its effects to have as wide a range of appicability in the cure of diseases as any mineral water known.
